Special Programs

READ! Summer Reading Kick-off (all ages)
May 30th, 11:00 AM—1:00 PM
Library Back Parking Lot

Come celebrate summer reading with our very own Smyrna Community Heroes! We're hosting a Touch-a-Truck with representatives from the Smyrna Fire Department, Police Department, and Public Works. We'll also have face painting, prize drawings, games, and hot dogs courtesy of Dairy Queen. If you haven't collected your summer reading materials, stop by the Youth Services tent to pick up everything you'll need to have a hero of a summer.

LEGO CLUB (all ages)

Use your imagination and build anything you want, because this month's LEGO theme is "the sillier the better!" Remember, we have Duplo for younger children.

June 2nd, 4:00 PM

Princess Party

Who says that the princess can't be the hero?! Join us for a special princess story time and sing-a-long with your favorite princess heroes, Anna and Elsa. Don't forget your camera because there will be a meet and greet following the program.

June 9th, 4:00 PM, Community Center

Star Wars Extravaganza (all ages)

Be an intergalactic hero at the library. Save Princess Leia, make your own light saber, explore the galaxy and more!

June 16th, 4:00 PM

"The Super Skeeter Show" Puppet Show (ages 3-7)

Oh, no! All the storybook characters are in disarray. But fear not! For whatever the trouble, whether real or imagined, Super Skeeter is here to save the day!
Disclaimer: Curious Moon Puppets is not responsible if Skeeter makes things worse.

June 23rd, 4:00 PM, Community Center

Superhero Training Camp (all ages)

Even superheroes need to train to keep themselves at their super best. Try out some new super moves, super games, and super fun at our training camp for the hero in you. Don't forget to wear your super suit!

June 30th, 4:00 PM

LEGO Club (all ages)

There are all kinds of heroes, superheroes, community heroes, and military heroes. Use your imagination to build your own hero-themed creation because "every hero has a story". Remember, we have Duplo for younger children.

July 7th, 4:00 PM

Helping Paws (all ages)

Not all heroes wear capes! Dogs are more than just man's best friend. Their usefulness has evolved from being a guard dog, a herding dog on the farm, and a companion dog in our homes, to the more specialized training we see today of service and specialized dogs. Join the CAREing Paws, Inc. dogs and their handlers for a demonstration on some of the many ways dogs can be heroes. At the conclusion of the program, there will be a time for meeting the dogs and asking questions.

July 14th, 4:00 PM

Hero Crafternoon (all ages)

Did you miss story time because you were out of town? Looking for an inside activity to beat the heat? Stop by the library for hero-themed make and take crafts.

July 21st, 4:00 PM—5:00 PM

July 21st, 1:00 PM

Summer Reading Finale (all ages)

July 25th, 2:00 PM—4:00 PM

Celebrate the hero in you at our summer reading program finale. Make a hero craft, take a hero challenge, and have a hero of a time! This summer also marks the 25th anniversary of the Friends of Smyrna Library. Without FOSL we would not be able to provide our quality summer programming. To celebrate, the Friends will be providing ice cream! Yumm!!! We'll also have face painting, a used book sale, and a few surprises. If you haven't collected your reading participation awards, stop by the Youth Services table to claim your prizes.
